Leadership Council Chronicle

May 2022

Why We Should Treat School Like a Job—In a Good Way

How is school like a job? It sounds like a riddle, but there's a sim answer. What employees need to thrive at work is the same as w students need to thrive in school: They need to feel like someone about them, and they need to be engaged.

Engagement and Hope, Defined

Gallup, a well-known research organization, defines student engagement as /the involvement in and enthusiasm for school.ó They define student hope as /the ideas and ener] a g e m e iq n n n n n n m

Watch Video

Share this email: