

Rights and Responsibilities of Students Requesting Disability Services at the University of Northern Colorado

Students with disabilities at UNC have the right to:

- Equal access to courses, programs, services, activities, and facilities offered through the university.
- Equal opportunity to receive appropriate and timely accommodations during their entire academic career at UNC, unless accommodations are offered as temporary (for one semester