Deaf International Employee,

Welcome to the University of Northern Colorado. Your status as a non-resident alien employee may create an opportunity for you to be exempt from having taxes withheld from your pay by the University if a tax treaty between your home country and the United States applies. To determine whether there is an applicable tax treaty that will exempt you from paying U.S. employment taxes, please contact the International HR Council and our Hearing Office here at jen.martin@unco.edu.

Please be prepared with the following information:
