Individuals who violate this policy shall be subject to discipline, termination, dismissal, debarment, arrest, or citation as applicable. Additionally, employees or students who violate this policy may be required to participate satisfactorily in drug abuse education, counseling, or rehabilitation programs approved by the University.

1-1-407(1) Policy on Alcohol. The University of Northern Colorado neither encourages nor discourages the use of alcoholic beverages, (including 3.2 and 6% beer, vinous or spirituous liquor), but does condemn the misuse/abuse and illegal use of alcoholic beverages. All members of the University community (students, faculty, staff, alumni, and guests) are responsible for making decisions about their behavior within the context of Colorado and the City of Greeley laws and University regulations. In addition, individuals must always be aware of and respect the rights of others within the University and local community.

1-1-407(2) Policy on Drugs. The University prohibits the unlawful or unauthorized manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, consumption, sale or use of controlled substances on or in University-owned or controlled property or in the course of University business or at University activities. equivalent insurance coverage. Students seeking such waiver are responsible to provide documented proof of equivalent insurance coverage.

1-1-412 Student Discipline.

Final authority regarding the imposition of disciplinary action on students is reserved to the President of the University or to the appropriate Vice President if delegated by the President. The President or the appropriate Vice President may review recommendations regarding discipline in order to determine that there is sufficient support for the charges and to ensure that the student was given a fair and reasonable opportunity to respond to the allegations against them and/or to present evidence of mitigating circumstances. The President's or the appropriate Vice

1-1-413 Campus Activities.

All officially recognized UNC student activities are open to all students without regard to race, ethnicity, religion, gender, age, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, military service, or political affiliation, except those organizations exempted by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, or other exemptions allowed by law. New organizations must submit their constitutions to a student committee and the appropriate Vice President for review to ensure they meet Student Senate constitutional requirements and Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity requirements.

1-1-414 Student Housing.

All University-owned housing is available to university students in compliance with federal and state non-discrimination laws. Necessary accommodations will be made for disabled students. Before landlords may list off-campus housing units with the University Residence Life, they must agree to comply with federal and state nondiscrimination laws. Complaints related to off-campus housing are submitted to the Off-Campus Renters Information Service coordinator or the Greeley Human Rights Council.
